

I'm one of those rare professionals who understands the business problem and can build the software to solve it. With 9+ years in Finance, Tax, and Revenue Management across LATAM (México, Argentina, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Peru, Nicaragua), I've led pricing strategies for 500+ vehicle fleets, automated financial workflows that cut processing time by 60%, and managed multi-country P&L at companies like FIFCO, Grupo ANC, and Genpact.

But in the last 4 years, I crossed a line most analysts never cross: I started building. Today I lead automation at Ruta Digital, where I design and develop full-stack SaaS products using Next.js, Firebase, and AI-assisted development. What makes me different: I don't just analyze data — I build the systems that capture it, process it, and turn it into decisions.
